Kensington, Febr. 13. The following Address from the Borough of Lymington, was presented to His Majesty by John Burrard, and Thomas Dore, Esquires, their Representatives in Parliament, and Roger Mompesson Esq; their Steward, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Macclesfield.

May it please the King of Great-Britain, France, and Ireland, &c.

WE the Mayor and Burgesses of Your Majesties Corporation and Borough of Lymington, without being guided by the Flattery of former, or the Rhetorick of latter Addresses, presume to approach Your Royal Presence, to Assure Your Majesty, That we always were, and ever will be heartily and sincerely to our Rightful and Lawful King William, most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects.

The humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Grand Jury, and other Freeholders at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden for the County of Northampton, was presented to His Majesty by Sir Sr. Andrew Sr. John, and Thomas Cartwright Esq; Knights of the Shire for the said County.

The humble Address of the Gentry, Freeholders, and other Protestant Inhabitants of the King's County in the Kingdom of Ireland, was likewise presented to His Majesty.

Which Addresses His Majesty received very Graciously.

Warsaw, Jan. 30. N. S. The Proposals made by the Primate, for assembling the Rokotz (or Gentlemen of his Party) at Lowitz some time the next month, have been accepted by the King of Poland, and there is good reason to believe this meeting will have the desired Success, for settling the Affairs of the Kingdom on such a foot as may restore a perfect Peace and Union among ourselves, and leave us at liberty to apply our whole Force as well as Care to the prosecuting the War against the Turks. The King continues his Resolution to begin very speedily his Progress to Prussia, and 'tis said he intends to part hence the 3d or 4th of the next month, and to receive the Primate, who is to come in Person to make his Submission to his Majesty at Thorne, a City about 30 Leagues distant from this Place; and from thence the King will go to Marienburg, and so to Dantzick, where it is thought he will meet his Queen, who is expected from Dresden. In the mean while all possible Endeavours are used by fair Means to compose the Differences in Lithuania, and if they do not succeed, the King will interpose his Royal Authority, and make use of such other Methods as shall be found necessary to put an end to them. The Queen Dowager has taken her Leave of the King, designing to go to her House in Russland.

Dantzicke, Febr. 18. Upon the Account we received from Warsaw, that the King would very soon set out on his Journey hither, we have been very busie for these several days last past, in making all the preparations this City is capable of for his Majesties Reception; but by fresher Letters come in this day we understand, that the Primate desiring rather to attend the King at Warsaw than at Thorne as was designed, his Majesties Journey is again put off, and it is believed he will now defer the same till Matters are fully adjusted with the Cardinal, and the Troubles in Lithuania are composed.
